

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, April 10. 1723.

London, April 10.
Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Constantinople, March 3.

THE Grand Signior seems to be satisfied with the Assurances given him by the French Ambassadors, that the Czar never designed by his Expedition to Persia to begin a Rupture with the Porte; and is hoped that the Turkish Envoy at Moscow, will bring back a Confirmation of these Assurances, with News also, that the Czar has sent Orders to his Troops at Derbent to evacuate that City and retire. Mean while, the Sultan has assured the Prince of Dagestan of being supplied with necessary Succours to procure Vengeance upon the Georgians, who favoured the coming in of the Russians to their Country. It is believed, the Porte will try to extend its Frontiers towards Ezerum and Babylon, notwithstanding the Grand Signior has acknowledged Miri Wey to be lawful Possessor of the Persian Monarchy, which for many Ages past was governed by Princes, Followers of the Sect of Al Mahomet's Disciple, who being willing to resign upon the Religion of his Master, introduced many Superstitions which seem'd abominable in the Eyes of Mahometans: The Porte therefore has signified to Miri Wey their great Joy in seeing him on the Throne of Persia, being a faithful Mussulman and Enemy to the Sect of Ali. The Affairs being now over that were raised by the Muscovite Progress into Persia, the Military Preparations were begun in April to relax, and the 12 Frigates that were ordered to sail to Aloff are countermanded.

Stockholm, March 31. The Imperial Minister Count Freytag arrived here the 29th inst from Copenhagen; 'tis believed his Quarrel with Major General Schwerin is going to be adjusted to the Satisfaction of both Courts. M. Rumpf, the Dutch Resident, is on his Departure for Holland. The Baron de Valet, a Swiss Lieutenant Colonel, is shortly to make an Experiment of converting Iron into Steel; as also of a Machine for draining Water with greater Ease and less Expence, out of Iron Mines: After which, the States will consider upon the granting him a Patent.

Vienna, April 3. On the 28th inst, the whole City of Buda was burnt down almost intirely to the Ground by an incendiary; and a Magazine of Gunpowder blowing up into the Air, killed near 200 Persons. It is not yet known when the Hungarian States will break up: The Article for the Toleration of Protestants in that Kingdom and its Dependencies meets yet with great Obstacles from the Prelates: The Cardinal de Saxe Zein is expected hither to report to the Emperour what Situation Matters are in at the Dyer.

Hambourg, April 6. Letters of the 18th inst from Petersburg confirm the Czar's Arrival there, but not having found all his Orders concerning the Fleet exactly executed, 'tis said some of his Commissioners will probably suffer for it. It is remarked that the Privy-Councillour M. Tolstoy no longer likes the Czar's publick Dispatches as he used to do formerly, which makes it conjectured that he is fallen under the Czar's Displeasure with the rest of his Ministers who lately have had that Misfortune. It is generally taken for granted, that one of the Princes of Hesse-Hambourg is to marry the Dutchess Dowager of Courland, and that the Czar will declare him Duke of that Duchy. The Turks fortify Aloff very strongly, and are erecting Magazines near the Black Sea; it is also reported, that the Ottoman Army is divided into two Bodies, one being ordered to march towards the Danube, and the other towards Persia. Advice from Vienna say, that the Count de Sinzendorf, who was first Imperial Commissary at the Congress at Utrecht, will shortly be appointed to go to the Hague, to transact there some particular Affairs of Importance.

Geneva, April 7. Major Davel, the Contriver of the Design to engage the City of Lausanne and its Dependencies to revolt from their Allegiance to this Canton, was Yesterday put upon the Rack, but 'tis not said what Matters he confess'd, every Person that was there present being obliged by Oath not to reveal any thing. Major Tacheron is narrowly looked after in the Castle at Lausanne but 'tis not known if Major Vorney be of the Number of the Prisoners. All the Cities of the Pays de Vaud keep a strict Watch within themselves.

Paris, April 14. Yesterday a Person who came Post hither, and went to the House of M. Helidan, a Banker of this City, was seized as he entered the Door, and being immediately searched, there were found upon him 1000 counterfeit Louis d'Or. Search is made for his Accomplices. It is expected, that M. de Fleury, Bishop of Frejus, formerly the King's Preceptor, will shortly be made a Cardinal, the Court having recommended him to the Pope for the next Promotion. Some Persons have made an Offer to the Council of the India Company of Five Millions of Livres a Year for the Farm of Tobacco.

Hague, April 13. The States of Holland still continue here, chiefly about Matters relating to Denmark; the Express that was sent thither being expected back either To Day or To Morrow, may probably determine what Measures are to be taken for removing the present Apprehensions the Dutch Merchants trading to the North are in, lest their Navigation should be disturbed by the Danes. News was received here the 11th Instant of the Death of Count Tilly, Governour of Maastricht, and General of Horse in the Service of the States His Government was Yesterday disposed of to Prince William of Hesse, and that of Brede which the Prince had, is given to M. de Neuchateau, who is succeeded in his Government of Tournay by M. de Palliot, and the Government of Venlo, which was possessed by the latter, is conferred upon Colonel Ginkel. All the Duke of Wintemburg's Pretensions upon Arns and Subsidies, are at length settled here with his Ministers, besides the Payments lately made, there yet remain due to him 100000 Francs, to be paid in six Payments at the Distance of six Months each. The States of the Province of Overisel are now assembled, and the Advice from thence will in, they have under Deliberation the conferring the Stadtholdership of that Province on the Prince of Nassau, the Deputies of three Towns having declared for him. It has been resolved to send a Squadron of five Men of War this Summer to the Straights, and the Captains of them are already nominated.
